ANNUAL SUMMARY: 2007

Acknowledgements

Offenses, clearances, and arrests are classified under the national Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) definitions.

For consistency over the current decade, the annual populations of the jurisdiction after Census 2000 are based on Planning Commission estimates published in July of each year for the county and the incorporated city/towns within it. The jurisdiction served by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department includes the city of Charlotte and the unincorporated areas of Mecklenburg County.

Data in this report was compiled with the assistance of staff in several units. Offense, arrest, and clearance data was extracted from automated records systems and from monthly UCR reports; data on citations and traffic collision reports was derived from databases entered by the CMPD Records Bureau. After August 2007, traffic collision data was produced from the TraCS accident reporting system. The district map for 2007 was created in the department's GIS system. Additional data was supplied by individual CMPD divisions and sections tracking their own activities and processes.

<sup>1</sup>For consistency, the populations of the jurisdiction after Census 2000 are now based on Planning Commission estimates published in July each year. Jurisdiction populations and crime data used in rate calculations for 2002 include Mint Hill; the calculations for 2003 excluded Mint Hill from the population data but included crimes reported there prior to July 1, 2003. All calculations after 2003 use a jurisdiction population based on the Planning Commission's estimates for the population of Mecklenburg County minus the populations of the six incorporated town:

<sup>1</sup>Clearances and clearance rates are reported in accordance with Uniform Crime Report(UCR) guidelines and include both clearances by arrest and by "exception." An arrest clearance occurs when at least one person is arrested in the case. An "exceptional" clearance occurs when law enforcement has identified at least one offender, but for reasons outside law enforcement control (death of offender, declining of prosecution by victim or district attorney, refusal to extradite, etc.), an arrest is not made.

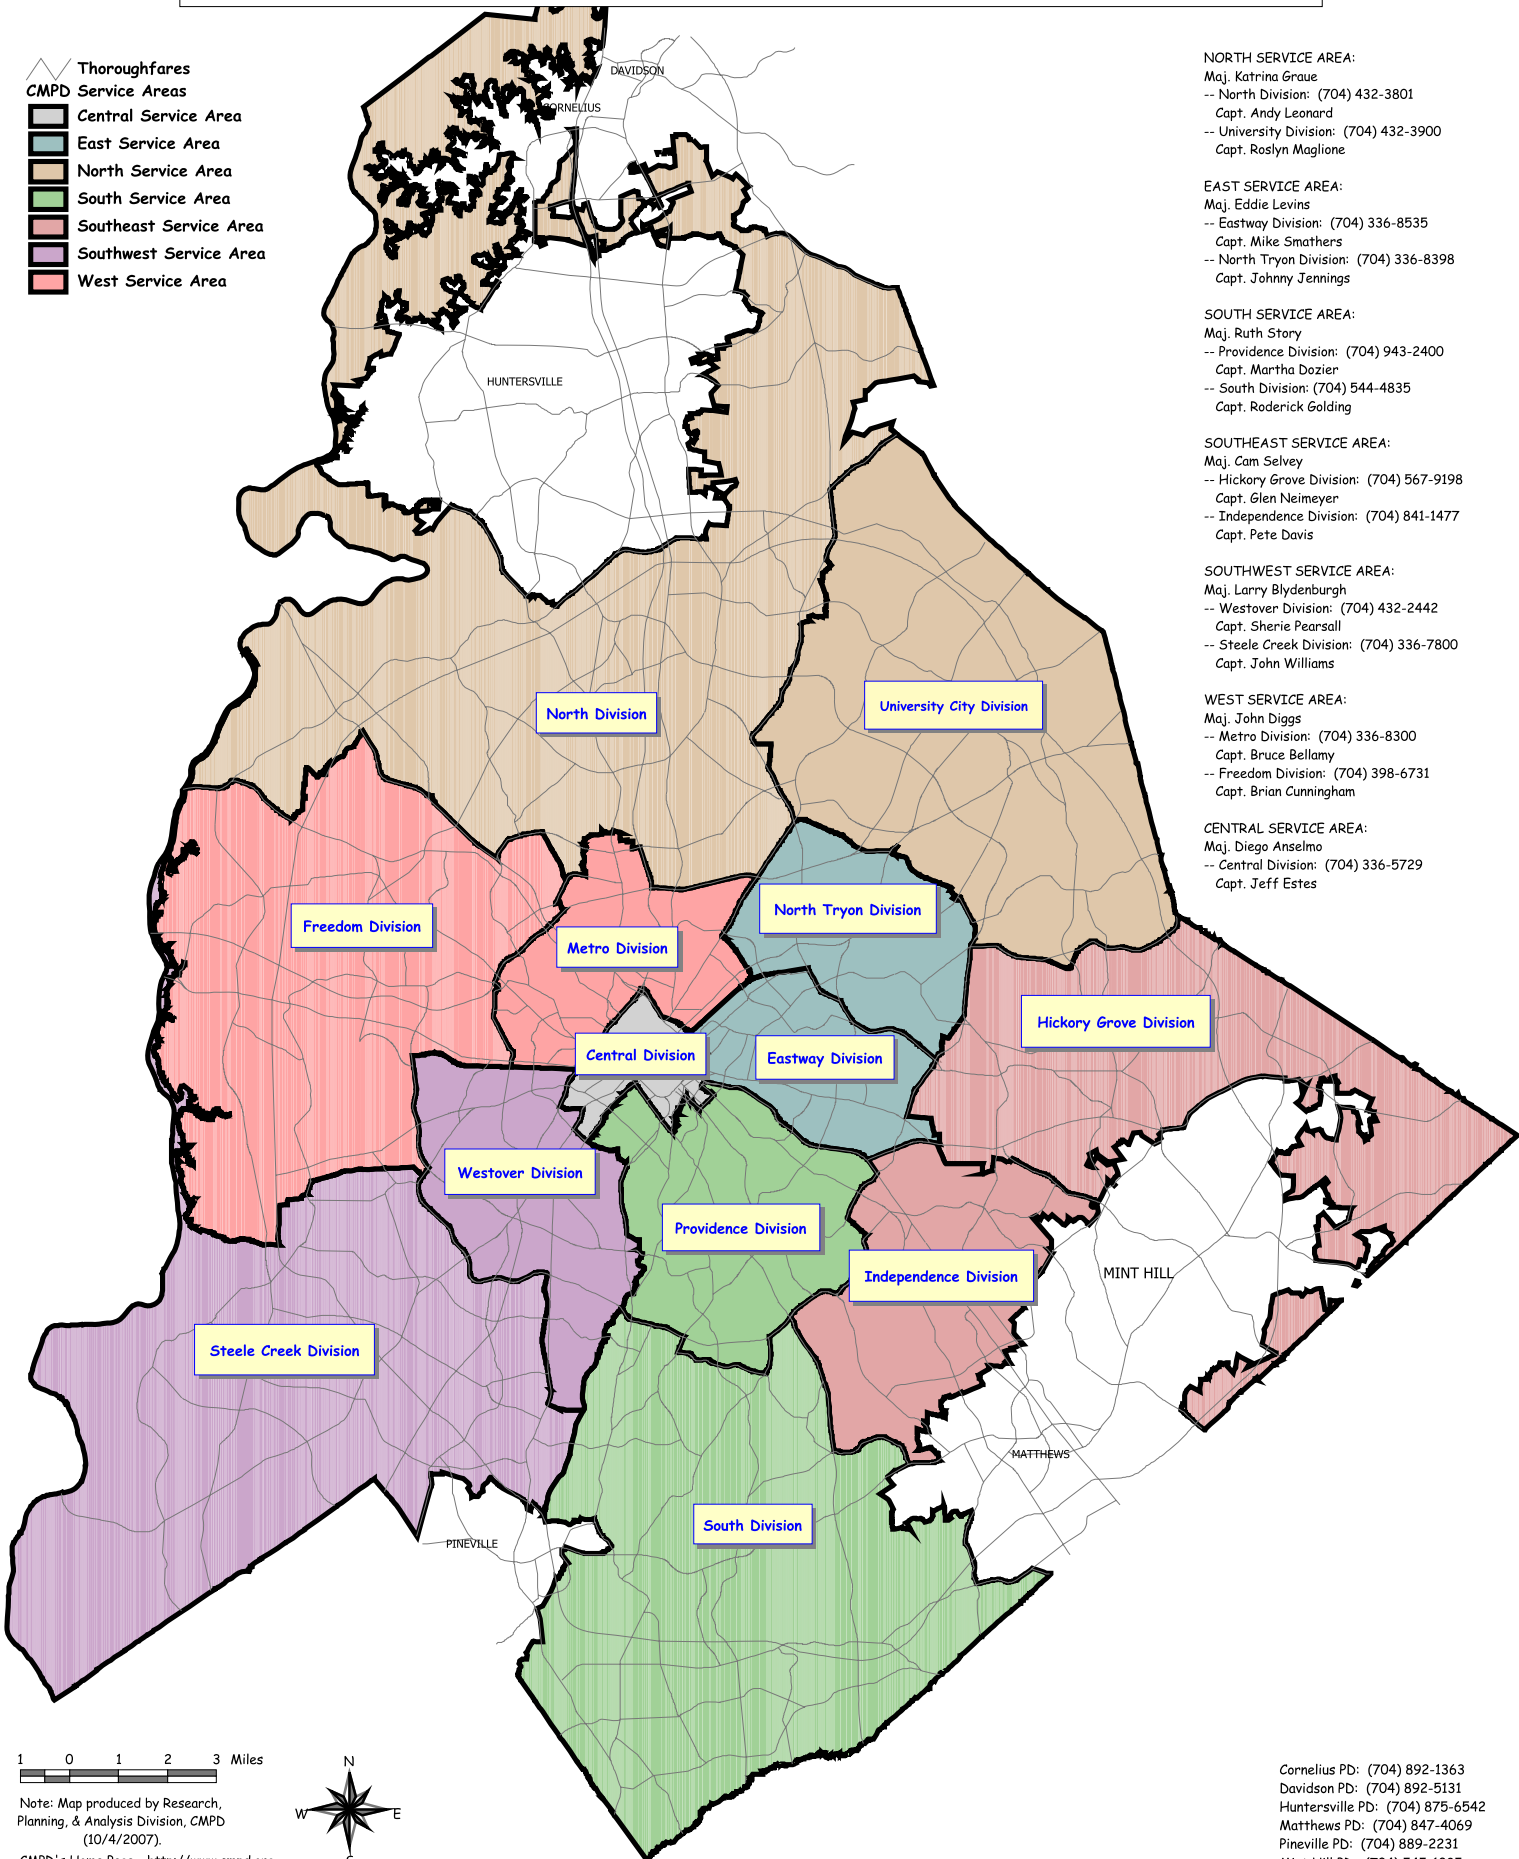

<sup>2</sup>The clearance rate is defined by UCR as the percentage that represents the number of cases cleared during the year (regardless of when the offense occurred) divided by the number of cases reported in that year.

<sup>1</sup>Except for Non-aggravated Assault, the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR program) does not collect incident statistics on Part 2 offenses as they do on Index (Part 1) crime. Only arrest data is collected by UCR for Part 2 offenses. As a result, there is considerable variability in Part 2 offense statistics because they can be affected by changes in local reporting policies and procedures, statutory definitions, etc.

<sup>3</sup>Some of the increase in the "Other Part 2" category is due to a change in reporting procedures where some "victimless" offenses (e.g., drugs, prostitution, weapons violations, etc.) are now generally documented by an incident report and an arrest report where formerly they were documented only through an arrest record.

<sup>3</sup>These reports are for required for documentation and/or followup for collision reports involving a hit and run situation; the traffic collisions reported in these totals are already counted in the totals in the "Traffic Collision Reports" chart on page 25.

<sup>4</sup>These reports document CMPD's finding and disposition of vehicles that were stolen from another jurisdiction or vehicles that were abandoned or left by the owner/driver but were not stolen.

<sup>5</sup>The Other Non-Criminal Incident group includes reports of lost/missing property, public accidents, accidental fires, overdose, or other events where no criminal action/intent was apparent and the report was taken mainly for documentation.

<sup>1</sup>An arrest can have multiple charges for different state, local, or federal statutes and ordinances. For UCR counting purposes, each arrest is generally classified by the highest type of charge on the UCR hierarchy. However, some arrests may have higher charges added to the arrest while the subject is still in jail or custody. The totals in this chart reflect the number of arrests events, not the number of charges attached to each arrest.

<sup>2</sup>These arrest totals do not include arrests for traffic charges other than DWI and Vehicular Manslaughter and do not include events where a misdemeanor charge was handled through a citation or a criminal summons rather than a custody arrest.

<sup>3</sup>The figures in the Juvenile and All Ages columns for 2006 and 2007 were adjusted in April, 2008, to include a number of juvenile arrests that were not counted

<sup>1</sup>These totals exclude duplicate and cancelled calls for service; they include calls handled by the Crime Reporting Unit as well as by division field officers, detectives and related CMPD staff.

<sup>2</sup>The type of call is determined from the 911 call, unless updated by an officer assigned to respond.

<sup>3</sup>In this summary, calls to Animal Control, Mecklenburg County Security, or Davidson Police are not included unless they also involve the dispatching of C-MPD field officers or detectives.

<sup>4</sup>This call type may not have been in use during part or all of the previous year or current year.

<sup>5</sup>Call totals may not match previously published totals due to adjustments for changes in call codes and procedures through the 2 years.

<sup>3</sup>The population estimates for the C-MPD jurisdiction in 1994-1999 were extrapolated using the Chamber of Commerce's estimates of the yearly percentage changes in the Mecklenburg County population, applied to the 1990 Census base population for the jurisdiction. The 2000 population is based on the Census totals for Mecklenburg County excluding the totals for the incorporated towns (except Mint Hill). For consistency, the jurisdiction populations after Census 2000 are based on Planning Commission estimates published in July each year; rate calculations may therefore show slight differences from annual rates based on estimates from other sources. The population for 2003 does not include Mint Hill, although the crime totals do include crimes occurring in Mint Hill during the first half of the year prior to July 1, 2003.

Uniform Crime Reporting Procedures:

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department reports offense and arrest statistics in accordance with standard Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) guidelines. UCR policy states that any adjustments to previous months can be made on the current month's report:

...In tabulating crime counts, an agency may find that offense totals for past months require adjustments due to developments in the investigation or other handling of the matter. It may be necessary to adjust totals reported to UCR for the past month or prior months. Needed adjustments can be made on the current month's report and do not affect the reliability of the figures in that such adjustments tend to equalize each other from month to month over a period of time.

- Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook, FBI, 1984, p. 42-43

We are required to report crime monthly to the UCR program, and we do therefore make an effort to process monthly changes in a timely manner. However, occasionally due to the review and processing required for reclassifying, unfounding or clearing cases, the current month's totals may reflect the processing of a backlog of these changes from previous months.

Clearances include cases cleared by both arrest and exception. An exceptional clearance occurs when the identity and location of an offender have been established through adequate investigation but no arrest will be made due to reasons outside law enforcement (prosecution has been declined by the district attorney or by the victim, offender has died or will not be extradited, etc.). Clearance rates under UCR are calculated by dividing the number of cases cleared during the year by the number of cases reported in the year. The clearances counted each year may thus include clearances of cases reported in previous years.

Uniform Crime Reporting Definitions and Terms:

Index Crime: the eight offenses that the national UCR program tracks on a yearly basis to gauge trends in the extent of crime, despite differences among state and local criminal statutes. These offenses were selected on the basis of several factors: seriousness, frequency of occurrence, pervasiveness in all geographic areas, and/or likelihood of being reported to law enforcement.

Violent Index: includes the offenses of murder/non-negligent manslaughter, rape, robbery, and aggravated assault

Property Index: includes the offenses of burglary, larceny, vehicle theft and arson

Murder/non-negligent manslaughter: the willful killing of one human being by another

Rape: the carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will [Note: This offense does not include other sex offenses or statutory (non-forcible) rape.]

Robbery: the taking or attempt to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force, threat of force or violence, or by putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated assault: an unlawful attack by one person on another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury; includes 1) all assaults in which a weapon of any type is used or is threatened to be used and/or 2) all assaults where serious injury occurs.

Burglary: the unlawful entry or attempted entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft

Larceny -Theft: the unlawful taking (or attempt), carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another [Note: Larceny/theft of a motor vehicle is classed separately; see next category.]

Vehicle Theft: the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle (a self-propelled vehicle that runs on land and not on rails, excluding farm and construction equipment)

Arson: the willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a structure, motor vehicle, personal property of another, etc.

Hierarchy rule: For cases involving multiple offense types, the incident is classified and counted based on the highest offense on a hierarchy of crimes established by UCR. For example, for an incident involving a rape and a burglary, the incident would be classified in the rape category because rape is higher than burglary on the hierarchy.

Clearance: A case is considered cleared 1) when at least one arrest is made for the offense or 2) when an offender's identity is established by investigation but the offender will not be arrested for reasons outside law enforcement control (offender dies, victim refuses to prosecute, district attorney declines prosecution, extradition is refused, etc.).

Unfounding: A case is "unfounded" and subtracted from the crime counts when investigation establishes either that the incident did not actually occur or that the actions within the incident are not criminal based on current law.
